

It's time for the 2018 Tribe 2 Tribe Walking Challenge!

The frenzy has begun! Today, Monday, May 21st, and continues until July 13th. Same as last year, the winner will be announced at the Michigan Indian Family Olympics, and the top scorers earn points towards their team Olympic score! We will be using the Challenge Runner website again; if you did not use it last year, let me know and I can send you information on how it works. As before, you have the ability to link many of the major activity trackers directly to your account. This will streamline logging your activities! However, if you aren't tech-savvy, no worries-there is a webinar link to get started setting up your account (<http://www.sagchip.org/mifo/Home/ActivityChallenge>), and if you REALLY hate logging, just send me your activity and I'll create and manage an account for you. The T2T 2018 page is now live, and you can join in at any time although the more often you log in the less cumbersome it can be (three weeks of data take some time to enter!). Also, if you aren't able to keep up with the activity and are worried about hurting the team's total, don't be: the rules this year allow for anyone who logs less than 10 miles of activity to be excluded from your team total.

To register, go to t2t.challengerunner.com.

So, that's it! If you have questions, I can be reached at 231 242-1664 or rbrubacker@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov. Miigwech, and let's get moving!
