- Meeting called to order at 5:05 PM by consensus
- Discussion was held regarding the Liquor and Tobacco Licensing Board's request that was recently sent to General Counsel Bransky to review for any issues regarding the Odawa Hotel re-opening their bar and selling liquor. Specifically, can guests walk from the bar to their rooms with drinks? This request has been answered by Mr. Bransky that there are no issues with guests walking from the bar to their rooms with drinks; it is permissible under State and Tribal law.
- The Board reviewed the Liquor and Tobacco License renewal application received from Odawa Casino Resort, Odawa Hotel and Biindigen.
- The Board reviewed the information received from Law Enforcement responding to the Board's request for any potential violations of the Liquor and Tobacco Licensing Statute by Odawa Casino Resort, Odawa Hotel and Biindigen.
- Motion by Board Member Janiskee and supported by Board member Denemy to approve the Liquor and Tobacco License for Odawa Casino Resort for the period of March 10, 2017 through March 9, 2018. Motion carried by consensus.
