CONTEST RULES

1. Contest is open to any cook, Native American or non-Native American.
2. Only Indian corn soup and fry bread will be allowed. A panel from the Blackbird Board will determine if the entry is admissible to the contest.
3. Soup and bread must be cooked off-site and brought to contest site.
4. Contest winners will be determined by those in attendance who pay a $5.00 fee for 2 voting tickets (1 for soup, 1 for bread).
5. The winners of each division will receive $100. In the event of a tie, the prize money will be split between the winners.
6. Attendees must be 13 or over to vote; children 12 and under will be allowed to sample at no charge, but they will not be allowed to vote.
7. Cooks must prepare enough soup or fry bread to allow all attendees to sample their entries. Bread should be cut or prepared in small sample-sized servings, and small sample cups will be provided for the soup. Spoons and napkins will also be provided. Cooks are asked to bring their own ladles.
8. Cooks will be on-site at 5:30 P.M. for set-up and admissibility determination. Doors will open to the public at 6:00 P.M.
9. Cooks are asked to bring a hot plate or heating tray if you have one.
