11 domestic violence.

13
14 SECTION IV. JURISDICTION

15
16 A. General Criminal Jurisdiction. In domestic violence cases, the criminal jurisdiction of 17 the Tribe extends to adult LTBB citizens and adult citizens of Federally Recognized Tribes;
18 however, upon motion of the Tribal Prosecutor the Judge has the discretion to try a minor as an 19 adult, provided the minor has attained the age of sixteen (16).

21 1. The Indian Civil Rights Act (ICRA), 25 U.S.C. Section 1302, was enacted by 22 Congress in 1968. Under ICRA, the Tribe’s jurisdiction is limited to punishments that 23 may impose up to a one-year jail term and a fine up to $5,000.00.

25 2. The Tribal Law and Order Act of 2010 (TLOA), Public Law. 111-211, was 26 amended by Congress in 2013. TLOA shall become effective when Tribal Council adopts
27 TLOA, by resolution, and the Tribe’s jurisdiction shall allow for punishments up to a 28 three-year jail term and a fine up to $15,000.00.

29
30 B. Special Domestic Violence Criminal Jurisdiction. The Violence Against Women
31 Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA), S.47, 113th Congress, 2013-2015, was reauthorized and 32 amended by Congress in 2013 affirming the tribes’ inherent power to exercise “special domestic 33 violence criminal jurisdiction” (SDVCJ) over all persons, regardless of their Indian or non-
34 Indian status. Under VAWA LTBB has limited criminal jurisdiction over non-Indian defendants
35 only for the following crimes: dating violence, domestic violence, violations of protection orders,
36 and other crimes when committed in the context of a dating or domestic relationship. The limited

1 jurisdiction applies where the victim is an Indian, the defendant lives or works in the territorial
2 jurisdiction of LTBB, or the defendant’s spouse, intimate partner, or dating partner is an Indian.
3 Such special jurisdiction may only be exercised when the defendant is charged with one of the 4 crimes in this Statute and may be imprisoned up to three years, a fine of up to $15,000.00.
5

6 C. Civil Jurisdiction. The Tribal Court has full jurisdiction and authority to issue and 7 enforce protection orders against all persons who are Indians; live or work in the territorial
8 jurisdiction of LTBB; or are a spouse, intimate partner or dating partner of an Indian regarding 9 matters arising within the territorial jurisdiction of LTBB as set out in VAWA, Title IX, Section 10 905.
12

13 SECTION V. DUE PROCESS GUARANTEES

14

15 A. Rights of the Accused. In all domestic violence criminal prosecutions, the accused has 16 the following rights:
17

- 18 1. To be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable
19 search and seizures, nor issue warrants, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or 20 affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the person or thing
21 to be seized;
22
- 23 2. Not to be subjected to the same offense twice to be put in jeopardy;
24
- 25 3. To compel any person in any criminal case to be a witness against himself or 26 herself;
27
- 28 4. To deny any person in a criminal proceeding the right to a speedy and public trial, 29 to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation, to be confronted with the 30 witnesses against him or her, to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his 31 or her favor.
32
- 33 5. To require excessive bail, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel and unusual 34 punishments.
35

1 6. To deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of its laws or
2 deprive any person of liberty or property without due process of law.

3
4 7. To pass any bill of attainder or ex post facto law.

5
6 8. To deny to any person accused of an offense punishable by imprisonment the 7 right, upon request, to a trial by jury of not less than six persons.

8
9 9. To be notified of the right to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in a court
10 of the United States.

11
12 10. That LTBB's criminal laws, rules of evidence, and rules of criminal procedure are 13 publicly available prior to charging the defendant.

14
15 11. Right to Counsel. When a defendant is charged with a crime of domestic 16 violence, the defendant has the right to receive a court-appointed attorney. Upon order of 17 the court, the attorney must defend, advise, and counsel without expense to the defendant,
18 any person who is subject to domestic violence criminal jurisdiction.

19
20 a. All court-appointed attorneys must be admitted to practice law before any 21 State Supreme Court or U.S. District Court and must be in good standing.

22
23 b. All court-appointed attorneys must keep a record of all services rendered
24 by the attorney in that capacity and file the report with the Tribal Council.

25
26 c. By December 1 of each year, the Chief Judge shall submit to Tribal 27 Council an annual report on the average cost of defending offenses under this 28 Statute.

29
30 d. A court-appointed attorney may petition the court to withdraw as attorney 31 of record and the court may grant that petition whenever private counsel is 32 employed either by the defendant or by any other person to represent that 33 defendant accepts the counsel.

34
35 B. Courts of Record.

1 1. Tribal Courts are the Courts of Record and the Clerk must certify under seal as to
2 the accuracy and validity of the files and records of all proceedings before the LTBB
3 Courts.

4
5 2. The Clerk shall take, preserve and certify under seal to the accuracy of a verbatim
6 record of the proceedings before the Courts. The record may be created and recorded by a
7 stenographic, electronic, mechanical, or other recording devices approved by the Chief
8 Judge of the Court as a trustworthy means of creating a permanent verbatim record of all 9 proceedings.

10
11 3. The Chief Judge shall proscribe the length of time verbatim transcripts must be 12 preserved by the Clerk, unless otherwise addressed by Statute.

14 4. It is a criminal offense, punishable by penalties and under the laws of LTBB for 15 the Clerk of the Tribal Courts to knowingly make or keep a false file, record or certificate
16 or to alter, amend or destroy any file, record or transcript without lawful authority.

19 SECTION VI. JUDGE AND JURY REQUIREMENTS

20
21 A. Tribal Court Judges. All judges presiding over cases in which domestic violence
22 criminal jurisdiction is asserted, must be admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the 23 United States, or any United States Circuit Court of Appeals, or the Supreme Court of any state;
24 and have sufficient legal training to preside over criminal trials.

25
26 B. Formation of Jury. Where the defendant is charged with a crime under this Statute, the 27 defendant has a right to be tried by a jury that represents a fair cross section of the community.

28
29 1. Juror Qualifications. The basic qualifications of a juror are any person who:

30
31 a. who is at least 18 years of age;

32
33 b. is not under any legal disability;

34
35 c. who has not been convicted of a felony in any jurisdiction in the last ten 36 years or convicted of a crime of domestic violence; and

1
2 d. who is a LTBB Citizen and lives within the territorial jurisdiction of 3 LTBB; is a family member of a LTBB Citizen and lives within the territorial
4 jurisdiction of LTBB; or is person employed by LTBB or any of its entities.
5

6 2. Jury Selection Process. LTBB ensures that juries represent a fair cross section of 7 the community and do not systematically exclude any distinctive group in the 8 community, including non-Indians.
9

10 D. Imprisonment. Any defendant sentenced to greater than one year imprisonment, must 11 serve the sentence in a federal or state facility; or a tribal facility that is approved by the 12 Bureau of Indian Affairs
13

14
15 SECTION VII. CRIMES OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
16

17 A. Dating Violence. This crime occurs when violence is committed by a person who is or 18 has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim, as determined
19 by the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction
20 between the persons involved in the relationship.
21

22 B. Domestic Violence. This crime occurs when violence is committed by a former spouse or 23 intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the intimate partner of the victim, by a 24 person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or 25 has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, or by a person similarly situated
26 to a spouse of the victim under the domestic violence laws of LTBB when the violence occurs
27 within the territorial jurisdiction of LTBB.
28

29 C. Definition of Violence. Violence is defined as the act of causing actual physical or 30 mental harm, or causing the fear of imminent physical or mental harm, or engaging in a course of 31 conduct that causes a reasonable person to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened,
32 harassed or controlled.
33

34 D. Violation of Protection Order. This crime occurs when the defendant acts within the 35 territorial jurisdiction of LTBB and violates the portion of a protection order that:
36

- 1 1. prohibits or provides protection against violent or threatening acts or harassment
2 against, sexual violence against, contact or communication with, or physical proximity to,
3 another person;
- 4
- 5 2. was issued against the defendant;
- 6
- 7 3. is enforceable by the participating tribe; and
- 8
- 9 4. is consistent with 18 U.S.C. § 2265(b). Full faith and credit given to protection 10 orders.

12 E. Possession of Firearm while Subject to Order of Protection. A perpetrator is guilty of 13 the crime, if the person is in possession, shipping/transporting, or receiving any firearm or 14 ammunition and has been subjected to a court order that was issued after a hearing in which the 15 person participated, which order restrains the person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an 16 intimate partner or partner’s child, and which order includes a finding that the person is a
17 credible threat to such partner or partner’s child, or by its terms prohibits the use, attempted use
18 or threatened use of such force against such partner or partner’s child.

19

20 F. Possession of Firearm after Conviction of Misdemeanor Crime of Domestic 21 Violence. A perpetrator is guilty of the crime, if the person is in possession,
22 shipping/transporting, or receiving any firearm or ammunition and has been convicted of a
23 misdemeanor of domestic violence crime where the perpetrator either used or attempted to use
24 physical force or the threatened use of a deadly weapon or has been convicted of a second or 25 subsequent misdemeanor offense of a domestic violence crime.

26

27 G. Other Domestic Violence Crimes. A perpetrator is guilty of a crime of domestic 28 violence if the person commits any of the following against that person’s spouse, former spouse,
29 another person to whom the perpetrator is related to by blood or marriage, another person with 30 whom the perpetrator is or was actually residing, another person with whom the perpetrator had 31 or is having a dating relationship, another person with whom the perpetrator has a child in 32 common, the minor child of any of the preceding persons, the perpetrator’s minor child, or 33 another person who has been appointed the custodian or legal guardian for the person’s minor 34 child.

- 1 1. Assault or Aggravated Assault
- 2 2. Battery, Battery by strangulation or suffocation, Aggravated Battery
- 3 3. Homicide Crimes
- 4 4. Stalking
- 5 5. Other Conduct. A knowing, purposeful, or reckless course of conduct intended
- 6 to harass the other person, including but not limited to the following:
- 7
- 8 a. Arson
- 9 b. Destruction of Property
- 10 c. Carrying a Concealed Weapon without a Permit
- 11 d. Larceny
- 12 e. Injuring an Animal
- 13 f. False Imprisonment
- 14 g. Interstate Travel to Commit Domestic Violence
- 15 h. Interstate Stalking
- 16 i. Interstate Travel to Violate an Order of Protection
- 17 j. Trespassing
- 18
- 19

20 SECTION VIII. PENALTIES

- 21
- 22 A. First Offense. A perpetrator who is found guilty of a crime under this Statute is subject
- 23 to imprisonment of up to one year, a fine of up to $5,000.00, and any appropriate rehabilitative
- 24 or probationary terms.
- 25
- 26 B. Second Offense. A perpetrator who is found guilty of a crime under this Statute and the
- 27 crime is the perpetrator's second offense, is subject to imprisonment of up to two years, a fine of
- 28 up to $10,000.00, and any appropriate rehabilitative or probationary terms.
- 29
- 30 C. Third or Subsequent Offense. A perpetrator who is found guilty of a crime under this
- 31 Statute and the crime is the perpetrator's third offense, is subject to imprisonment of up to three
- 32 years, a fine of up to $15,000.00, and any appropriate rehabilitative or probationary terms.
- 33
- 34 D. Aggravating Circumstances. Where there are aggravating circumstances, the Judge may
- 35 increase a sentence above the proscribed range. Aggravating circumstances include, but are not
- 36 limited to, the following:

- 1
- 2 1. where the victim suffers serious bodily injury from the attack;
- 3
- 4 2. where the perpetrator is a repeat offender;
- 5
- 6 3. where the perpetrator used a dangerous weapon or used an object as a dangerous
- 7 weapon during the attack;
- 8
- 9 4. where the perpetrator was under the influence of drugs or alcohol;
- 10
- 11 5. where the attack took place in the presence of minor children;
- 12
- 13 6. where the perpetrator knew or should have known that the victim was particularly
- 14 vulnerable or incapable of resistance; or
- 15
- 16 7. where the victim was pregnant and the perpetrator knew of the pregnancy.
- 17

18 E. The Court shall order the perpetrator to pay restitution based on the needs of the victim
19 and the ability to pay by the perpetrator and any other relevant factors.

21 F. The Court shall develop, for Tribal Council approval, sentencing guidelines that provide 22 a range of minimum to maximum time of imprisonment, along with minimum and maximum 23 range of fines. Additionally, the Court may include in the guidelines appropriate rehabilitative or 24 probationary terms as remedial measures, such as batter's intervention, inpatient or outpatient
25 drug treatment or participation in a drug treatment court, probation with any probation conditions
26 required or authorized by law, residential probation, probation with jail, probation with special
27 alternative incarceration, mental health treatment, mental health or substance abuse counseling, 28 jail with work or school release, jail with or without authorization for day parole, participation in 29 a community corrections program, community service, house arrest, or electronic monitoring, 30 provided that it defines what facts and circumstances would allow for the remedial measures to 31 be taken into consideration.

32

33 G. When making sentencing determinations, the Court shall follow the sentencing guidelines 34 and consider the type and seriousness of the crime, including any aggravating circumstances, as 35 well as the potential helpfulness of rehabilitative services. Deviation from the sentencing

1 guidelines would only occur if the Court has a substantial and compelling reason for that
2 departure and states on the record the reasons for departure from the guidelines.

3
4 H. Forfeiture of Weapons. The Court may order forfeiture of the firearms and 5 ammunition.

6
7
8 SECTION IX. RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRIBAL POLICE

9
10 A. To Victims. A law enforcement officer responding to a domestic violence situation must 11 use all reasonable means to protect the victim and minor children to prevent further violence.
12 This may include, but is not limited to, the following:

- 13
14 1. taking any necessary action to provide for the safety of the victim and household
15 members;
- 16
17 2. confiscating any weapons involved;
- 18
19 3. assisting victims in obtaining medical treatment;
- 20
21 4. assisting victims in removing essential personal effects;
- 22
23 5. transporting the victims and any minor children to a shelter or other safe place;
- 24
25 6. giving the victims immediate notice of rights, remedies, and services available; 26 and
- 27
28 7. notifying the appropriate agency or agencies that can provide assistance.

29
30 B. To Children Present. A law enforcement officer who responds to a domestic violence
31 situation where minor children are present must use all reasonable means to protect the minor
32 children and prevent further acts of violence in their presence. This includes taking necessary
33 actions to provide for the safety of the children, ensuring the children have adequate supervision
34 after the perpetrator is removed, and any other necessary actions.

35
36 C. Arrests.

1
2 1. Crimes of Domestic Violence. Where a law enforcement officer has probable
3 cause to believe that a person has committed a crime of domestic violence, the officer
4 may, without or with a warrant, arrest and charge the perpetrator with the appropriate 5 crime.

6 2. Violations of Protection Orders. Where a law enforcement officer has probable
7 cause to believe that the perpetrator violated a Protection Order, the officer may arrest the 8 perpetrator.

9
10 D. Seizing Weapons. Law enforcement officers have the authority to seize weapons
11 incident to arrest and in the course of securing a crime scene. The law enforcement officer shall:
12

13 1. Seize all weapons alleged to have been involved or threatened to be used in the 14 commission of a crime or any weapon in the immediate vicinity of the alleged 15 commission of the offense; and

16
17 2. Seize a weapon that is in plain view or that is located during a search authorized
18 by a person entitled to consent to the search. All such weapons including those the officer 19 concludes were used in the commission of a crime must be confiscated regardless of 20 ownership.
21

22
23 SECTION X. DUTIES OF TRIBAL PROSECUTOR
24

25 A. In every case in which a person is arrested for or charged with a criminal offense under 26 this Statute, the Prosecutor's Office must maintain contact with the victim throughout the 27 criminal proceedings.
28

29 B. The Prosecutor's Office must confer with the victim regarding the need for any civil 30 protection orders, bonds and other restraints to assure the safety of the victim and the victim's
31 family or household members.
32

33 C. The Prosecutor's Office must inform the victim of all hearing dates, continuances, and 34 rights of the victim. The Prosecutor's Office shall make available to the victim all reports
35 received by the Prosecutor at the conclusion of the case.
36

1 D. The Prosecutor’s Office must inform the victim of major prosecutorial decisions;
2 including decisions not file charges under this Statute when the victim has reported the offense
3 or the perpetrator has been arrested for a criminal offense under this Statute, or decisions to enter
4 into a plea agreement relating to a charge under this Statute.
5

6 E. The Prosecutor’s Office must obtain information from the victim regarding costs and 7 losses sustained as a result of the perpetrator’s act of domestic violence and must seek restitution
8 for the victim and provide opportunity to complete a victim’s impact statement that will be 9 presented to the court.

11
12 SECTION XI. SEVERABILITY
13

14 If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, phrase or portion of this Statute is, for 15 any reason, held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion 16 shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect 17 the validity of the remaining portions thereof.
18

20 SECTION XII. EFFECTIVE DATE
21

22 Effective upon signature of the Executive or 30 days from Tribal Council approval
23 whichever comes first or if the Executive vetoes the legislation, then upon Tribal Council
24 override of the veto, provided that the Statute shall not be implement or jurisdiction exercised
25 until March 7, 2015.
