“Sumak kawsay (Good life or Good living) is fundamentally different from the Western mindset where humans are seen as separate from nature, where nature is seen as something to be controlled, as an object of domination and source of wealth. For indigenous peoples, humans are not separate from nature but part of it and nature is not a resource but the mother of all that exists. Sumak kawsay involves living in harmony with the cycles of Mother Earth”-Florensmilo Simana, Ecuadorean Indigenous Leader.
