As a member of the Gaming Authority Committee, I volunteered to go to NIGA as the official representative. I attended all of the NIGA membership meetings, which took up most of the day. The majority of these meetings focused on updates in gaming in Indian Country, including chairman and treasurer reports.

I also attended the Chairman's Leadership Award Luncheon, the Cultural Reception, and the Wendell Chino Humanitarian Award Banquet, as well as walked the floor of the Indian Gaming Trade Show.

One of the mornings, I had breakfast with Michael Garrow and a representative from Dreamcatcher Hotels to gather information on the possibility of adding a hotel to the existing casino. I found this meeting to be promising and have hopes of discussing more possibilities with Dreamcatcher.
