LTBB TRIBAL CITIZEN WENONA SINGEL HONORED FOR HER YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE LTBB APPELLATE COURT

during the presentation and gifted Singel with a beaded gavel.

The following are some of Singel's accomplishments while serving on the LTBB Appellate Court as the Chief Appellate Justice and Appellate Justice from 2003-2017:

- Restatement of the Law Third: The Law of American Indians.

In addition to teaching, Ms. Singel's professional activities included serving as the Chief Appellate Justice for the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians and former service as the Chief Appellate Judge for the Grand Traverse Band of Ottawa and Chippewa Indians. From 2006-2009, she served as President and Board Member of the Michigan Indian Judicial Association. On March 29, 2012, the United States Senate passed by unanimous consent President Barack Obama's nomination of her to serve as a member of the Advisory Board of the Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation. Ms. Singel is also an elected member of the American Law Institute where she is the Co-Reporter for the project to develop a Restatement of the Law of American Indians. STARBUCKS, BOSTON'S PIZZA SLATED FOR FALL OPENINGS AT FORMER CASINO SITE

By Ryan Bentley, News-Review Assistant Editor

Editor's note: The following article and accompanying photograph appeared in the Petoskey News-Review on September 11, 2018.

With efforts continuing to re-work a former casino property just south of Petoskey, MI, into a mix of new uses, a project official said the site's first two new business occupants are on track for openings this fall.

The Victories Square complex is under development at U.S. 131 and Lears Road, on a 22-acre site where the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians' Victories Casino previously stood. The new development is a project of Odawa Economic Development Management, Inc. (OEDMI) — an entity the Little Traverse Bay Bands of

ZIIBIMIJIWANG AND MINOGIN MARKET UPDATE

Submitted by Ziibimijwang, Inc. (with excerpts from its second quarter report to Tribal Council)

Ziibimijwang is committed to restoring and strengthening Mino-bimaadziwin of the Odawa Community through a foundation of indigenous food systems and cultural activities.

The Ziibimijwang Board, alongside a hard-working staff and dedicated volunteers, continue to make huge strides at the farm, as well as the newly opened Minogin Market in Mackinaw City, MI.

On the farm, the Youth Farm Stand Program has launched, two new hoop-houses have been assembled and new equipment has been purchased with the help of a BIA agriculture/invasive species grant. In addition, Ziibimijwang Farm was featured in the "Guide to Local Food" published by Taste the Local difference.

Throughout 2017, board members and staff worked with MSU Extension to envision the future of Ziibimijwang Inc., identify component practices that will contribute to its success and identify "low hanging fruit" or LTBB-owned infrastructure that would substantially propel the organization forward. Over the course of two mediated sessions and numerous unmediated meetings, the board identified the property formerly known as Bell's Fishery as a critical component of Ziibimijwang's success. The board sees potential in this facility to provide food processing, retail, farm market space, food storage and distribution and food service practices, all of which will provide for strengthened local food systems and move Ziibimijwang Inc.

closer to achieving financial self-sufficiency, food sovereignty and the numerous service goals of our organization.

During the second quarter, Ziibimijwang Board members (and their family members!!) worked aggressively toward renovating and opening Minogin (it grows well) Market. The board applied for and received a $179,000 grant from Michigan Economic Development Corporation, which has covered all renovation related expenses since April 30. Contractors were hired, and they addressed wiring, plumbing and structural issues. The old smoke-house and gut cooler was demolished, and a new sewer line was installed.

Minogin Market opened temporarily for Memorial Day Weekend.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

TAX AGREEMENT INFORMATION

By Theresa Keshick, Department of Commerce Assistant

The Department of Commerce (DOC) would like to remind the tribal membership about a few items pertaining to the Tax Agreement.

First of all, I cannot express enough how important it is to keep your address updated.

The first step in becoming a Resident Tribal Member (RTM) is to officially change your address with the Enrollment Department. This must be done in writing and as soon as possible.

The DOC cannot and will not change the estimated beginning date (EBD) (which is always the first in any given month) of a member's tax exempt status (see example below).

It is YOUR responsibility to update your address on file with the Enrollment Department. This date will affect how many months you will be able to file the Annual Resident Tribal Member Sales Tax Credit (Tribal Form 4013). It is to your benefit to be able to file for the maximum number of months for this credit.

In addition, being an RTM will allow you to purchase large items such as vehicles, boats, motorcycles and off the road vehicles tax exempt.

There is a form that needs to be filled out called a "Request for TCE" (Tribal Certificate of Exemption), which is available in my office. Once this form is completely filled out, I will then issue the RTM the actual Tribal Certificate of Exemption (Tribal Form 3998).

If you plan on purchasing any of these items, please contact me FIRST, and I will be happy to get you the form via e-mail or fax. I am also able to fax the TCEs to the dealership you are doing business with.

Being an RTM will also allow you to be tax exempt on utility bills such as phone, cable, gas, propane, electricity, satellite and cellular service. If you have not filled out a Utility Provider Survey, please contact the DOC, and I will be happy to get one to you.

Also, another important thing to remember is if you do move into the Tax Agreement Area (TAA), your RTM status does NOT take effect until the first day of the following month.

Example: I move to Petoskey, MI, (inside the TAA) on September 5, 2010. My RTM (EBD) status begins October 1, 2010. All updates are sent to the State of Michigan as close to the end of the month as possible.

The LTBB Tax Agreement is viewable on the State of Michigan's website at:

<https://tinyurl.com/ltbbmitax>

If you have any other questions pertaining to the Tax Agreement, I can be reached at my office at 231-242-1584 or via e-mail at tkeshick@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov.

Schools are doing a great job ensuring that kids are served safe meals!

LESS THAN 4% of all foodborne outbreaks reported to the CDC are associated with schools.

FOOD SAFETY IN SCHOOLS

When foodborne outbreaks do occur in schools, illnesses are most often associated with norovirus. 56% of foodborne illnesses associated with outbreaks in schools are caused by norovirus, a very contagious stomach illness that can make you sick with diarrhea, throwing up, and stomach pain. Sick food handlers can easily contaminate food.

The USDA Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) Office of Food Safety is committed to arming school nutrition professionals with the tools they need to prevent and control norovirus outbreaks.

MORE THAN 100,000 copies of The Stomach Bug Book - a FREE resource that explains what school employees need to know about stomach illnesses - have been distributed to schools across the country. (También en español)

Targeting Norovirus

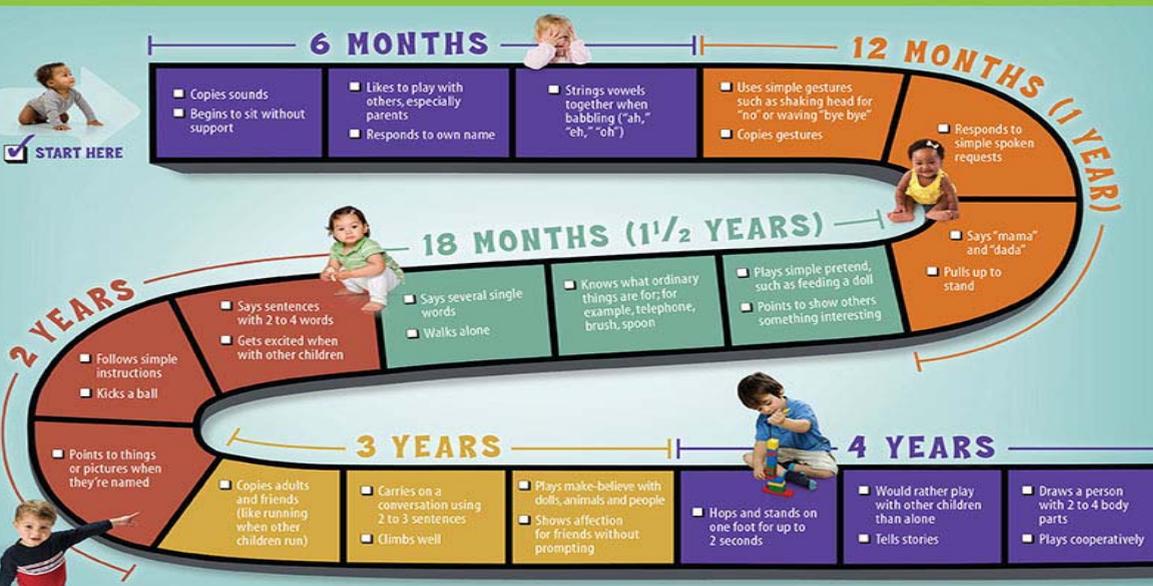

Three key practices can help prevent the spread of norovirus by food handlers.

- 1 Stay home when sick
- 2 Wash your hands
- 3 Avoid touching food with your bare hands

More than 1,000 school nutrition professionals have been trained in norovirus prevention and control. FREE resources are available at: www.thelon.org/norovirus

LTBB Education Department Memorandum

MICHELLE CHINGWA EDUCATION HONORARIUM

August 7th, 2018

Dear Student,

On July 28th, 2018, Tribal Council passed the Michelle Chingwa Education Honorarium (MCEH) Act which has been enacted to provide a gift to honor Tribal Citizens that are obtaining post-secondary educational opportunities. The MCEH Act repeals and replaces the original and amended Michelle Chingwa Education Assistance Act including WOS 2007-005 and WOS 2014-010.

With the passage of the legislation, several changes have been made to the previous Michelle Chingwa Education Assistance (MCEA) Scholarship Program:

1. Students attending a post-secondary institution that is accredited by a foreign government accrediting agency are now eligible for MCEH funding.
2. Students are no longer required to submit FAFSA information to remain eligible for an honorarium.
3. Honorariums will be distributed directly to the student.

These changes became effective on 8/2/2018 for Fall 2018. The new MCEH application can be found on the LTBB website. A direct link to WOS 2018-010 has been provided below:

Please contact the Education Department with any questions regarding these recent changes.

Sincerely,

The LTBB Education Department

EXECUTIVE BRANCH

FROM THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE

Aanii.

In September, we celebrated LTBB's Sovereignty Day. The variety show at the celebration was a great showcase of the talent that surrounds us in our community.

We continue to be involved in efforts with other tribal nations and the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) in projects which examine tribal workforce development approaches across the country. NCAI's Partnership for Tribal Governance (PTG) has worked to identify and document key strategies which empower tribal innovation and workforce success. Through this PTG, it identified 15 strategic considerations that tribal leaders, workforce development staff and other decision-makers must meet as they design workforce development approaches capable of achieving their definition of what "success" looks like for tribal citizens and our nation as a whole. These workforce improvements have a direct bearing on the ability of tribal workforce development approaches to make a maintainable difference for our communities.

On the last call, we spoke of our Michelle Chingwa Education Honorarium and the success of our tribal citizens who have and are attaining a degree which leads to a job.

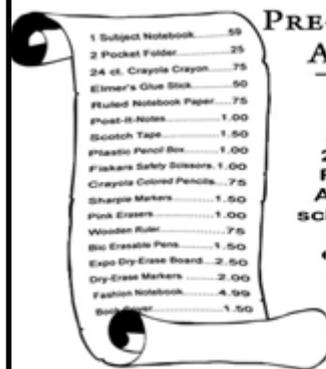

We continue to review our programing and implement changes. The Elder Food and Utility Disbursement updates have been received well, and we will continue to look for ways to streamline our processes.

As always, our team looks forward to progress in a good way.

METHAMPHETAMINE SUICIDE PREVENTION INITIATIVE - TOGETHER WE ARE STRONGER - BEHAVIORAL HEALTH YOUTH SUICIDE PREVENTION PROGRAM

Submitted by Corey Bennington, MSPI Grant Coordinator

The Methamphetamine Suicide Prevention Initiative (MSPI) program at LTBB is focused on early identification of at-risk youth. This is achievable by identifying and addressing suicide ideations, attempts and contagions among LTBB youth through culturally appropriate evidence based practices including, but not limited to community education, policy amendments and youth involvement.

trapped or in unbearable pain.

- Talking about being a burden to others.
- Increasing the use of alcohol or drugs.
- Acting anxious or agitated; behaving recklessly.
- Sleeping too little or too much.
- Withdrawing or isolating themselves.
- Showing rage or talking about seeking revenge.
- Extreme mood swings.

Why is the MSPI program needed?

Suicide is a pervasive problem for Indian country that impedes our tribal communities from living harmoniously. A loss of life can send shockwaves throughout the community. Suicide is the eighth leading cause of death for American Indians/Alaskan Natives of all ages. American Indian/Alaskan Native adolescents are disproportionately impacted as suicide is the second leading cause of death for ages 10-24.

What is the purpose of the MSPI grant?

The Methamphetamine and Suicide Prevention Initiative (MSPI) is a nationally-coordinated program focusing on providing much-needed methamphetamine and suicide prevention and intervention resources for Indian country. This initiative promotes the use and development of evidence-based and practice-based models that represent culturally-appropriate prevention and treatment approaches to methamphetamine abuse and suicide prevention from a community-driven context.

What are some current goals for the LTBB MSPI grant?

- Educate the community on the early signs of suicide to increase the chances of prevention and intervention.
- Implement programs to reduce suicides/attempts/ideations in tribal youth.
- Develop stronger clinic/behavioral health policies to assist those at risk for suicide.

If you know anyone who is currently struggling with suicide, the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline provides 24/7, free and confidential support for people in distress at 1-800-273-TALK (8255) or by simply texting "HOME" to 741741.

If you have any questions or would like further information regarding the Youth Suicide Prevention Program, please contact the MSPI Grant Coordinator, Corey Bennington, at cbennington@ltbbodawa-nsn.gov or 231-242-1645.

-Tribal Council attendance?

Discussion: St. Martin Island Lighthouse and property

-Natural Resources Director Doug Craven intends to write a management plan and transfer it to the THPO program.

-The roofs are collapsing around the lighthouse and the buildings are deteriorating.

-This lighthouse was listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

-It is evident the lighthouse needs money for upkeep and to stabilize the structures (see: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uOvPmx-AKbs>). A study needs to be completed on how much would it cost to stabilize vs. the clean-up costs associated with letting it "fall".

-Regardless, the Tribe looks irresponsible in the Federal upkeep by doing nothing.

-What are Tribal Council's thoughts? Plan of Action?

5:11 p.m. Resume

Motion made by Councilor David Harrington and supported by Councilor Shananaquet that this motion of declaration of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians Tribal Council states as follows: since it first filed suit, the Tribe has emphasized that even as it is committed to enforcing the United States' treaty promises, it also understands the value of negotiated agreements; and as early as October of 2015, it went on the record telling the Court that "The Tribe recommends that the court submit this case to mediation." There, the Tribe specifically pointed to the negotiation of the Saginaw boundary case as a model for negotiations in this case and told the Court that "Although the mediation process was long and complex, it resulted in the successful settlement of the reservation-boundary question that the case presented and reached accommodation of on-the-ground issues that could not otherwise have been answered by the claims and defenses at issue in that case." It offered that the Tribe "stands ready to participate in whatever form of alternative dispute resolution that the Court believes would be most beneficial in resolving this case." In contrast, the State told the court that mediation was "premature" and that "a formal dispute resolution process like mediation will not be meaningful before the State has had an opportunity to retain its experts and conduct discovery"; and when the issue came up again in October of 2016, the Tribe remained committed to negotiating with its neighbors. It told the Court that it "understands that its requested relief cannot address the jurisdictional-allocation concerns that certain defendants have raised. The Tribe has long invested in and seeks to maintain important working relationships with its neighbors. It respectfully requests that this Court appoint a mediator because it expects that the most efficient and effective means to address all the parties' concerns is through mutually agreeable resolution of this case." It emphasized again that "Mediation affords the parties an opportunity to reach clarity and certainty on these issues that this litigation cannot resolve—and to do so on a time table that would avoid years of multi-party, multi-expert, multi-phase, and possible multi-appeal expense." And it outright asked the Court: "The Tribe respectfully requests the appointment of a mediator in order to best position the parties for a cost-effective, workable outcome that is responsive to all parties' concerns." Again, in contrast, the State—and every other local government and private association who joined the case—rejected the idea of a negotiated resolution to the case. It said that mediation at that time "is not likely to be productive" and asked the Court to allow the parties to complete an extended and expensive discovery process before asking them to sit down to talk; and finally, as of today, the Tribe has not heard anything different from the defendants. But today the Tribe still stands ready to negotiate with its neighbors about how to resolve this lawsuit in a way that benefits everyone in the case. We will join them wherever they ask to talk about how this case impacts them and how the Tribe can address those issues. We look forward to hearing from them.

base beyond gaming — in partnership with Geodetic North Investors LLC.

Two buildings in the latter stages of construction near the west side of the complex will provide space for Boston's Restaurant & Sports Bar and a Starbucks coffee shop with a drive-thru. In a recent e-mail, Odawa Economic Development Management President Tanya Gibbs said fall openings are expected for both of these chain-affiliated businesses.

The building, which will house Starbucks, also includes two additional retail spaces. Gibbs noted recent lease negotiations between project officials and a potential occupant for one of these, and added numerous other prospective tenants have expressed interest in the remaining space.

Construction also is underway on a five-story, 137-room hotel on the eastern portion of the Victories Square site. Gibbs noted a spring 2019 opening is anticipated for the hotel, which will carry the Courtyard by Marriott brand.

The Victories Square partners, tribal officials and members and other guests celebrated the redevelopment effort's launch in October 2017, following a couple of years of site preparations such as terrain reshaping and construction of a road network on the property. Around the time of last fall's project launch, Victories Square representatives noted plans to include grassy, park-like space amid some of the other development features, and that they were eyeing additional hospitality, restaurants, retail businesses and apartments as possibilities for future construction phases.

As for more recent planning efforts, "the OEDMI Board continues to have internal discussions regarding Phase II and III plans and open communications with the Tribal Council of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians and our partner, Geodetic North Investors, LLC," Gibbs said in the recent e-mail. "Recently, OEDMI joined the Petoskey Chamber of Commerce, and we intend to work with the chamber and its members moving forward to gain some insight related to the needs of the broader community to see how Victories Square might be able to accommodate some of those needs."

Victories Casino closed in 2007 when the Odawa tribe replaced it with the larger Odawa Casino half a mile to the west. The older casino building was demolished in 2013.

When the tribe originally acquired the Victories site for casino use, it was placed in trust with the federal government and remains in that status. For a previous News-Review story, Gibbs noted the Victories Square company will have a primary lease on the project site with various tenants subleasing their sites.

HOW TO SPOT THE RED FLAGS OF ABUSE

STRONGHEARTS
Native Helpline
1-844-7NATIVE | strongheartshelpline.org

By Mallory Black (Diné), StrongHearts Native Helpline Communications Manager

Exploring a new relationship is an exciting time where it might seem like every moment you are learning something new about your partner's culture, family and beliefs.

While you and your partner might be having fun getting to know each other, it's important to watch for certain behaviors when dating someone new. In the beginning of a relationship, it's not always easy to tell if your partner might become abusive.

It can also be hard to spot the early warning signs of abuse because every relationship is different. The one thing most abusive relationships have in common is that the abusive partner will do anything to gain power and control over their partner.

Here are some early "red flags" to look for — but know that these behaviors can appear in a relationship at any time.

Does your partner:

- Move too fast into the relationship or pressure you to commit?
- Shower you with compliments or seem "too good to be true"?
- Constantly ask where you are all the time or frequently call or text you throughout the day?
- Follow you around or show up at your home, school or work without telling you in advance?
- Pressure you to have sex before you're ready?
- Act extremely jealous or possessive of you?
- Make jokes about your culture or put you down for being Native?

- Lose their temper with you or yell at you in private, but stay calm around others?
- Insist you "make more time for them" by spending less time with your family or friends?
- Encourage you to quit school or work or to stop participating in activities and hobbies?
- Insist on driving you everywhere or checking your car mileage when you return?
- Blame their former partners for abuse in previous relationships (for example, "My ex was crazy" or "It wasn't that bad")?

Someone who acts in these ways may try to blame their partner for their own abusive behavior. No matter the reason, a person chooses to abuse, it is never their partner's fault.

What You Can Do

If you experience one or more of these "red flags," please call the StrongHearts Native Helpline at 1-844-7NATIVE (1-844-762-8483), Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. CST. Knowledgeable advocates can connect with you one-on-one and help you figure out your options. Advocates are trained with an understanding of intimate partner violence, including spiritual or cultural abuse. Our advocates can provide support and validation, safety planning and access to resources in your community. For more information, visit www.strongheartshelpline.org.

Mallory Black is the Communications Manager for the StrongHearts Native Helpline, a confidential and anonymous helpline for Native Americans affected by domestic violence. If you or a loved one is in an abusive relationship, support is available at 1-844-7NATIVE (1-844-762-8483), open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. CST. Advocates offer peer-to-peer support and referrals to culturally-appropriate resources for domestic violence. After hours calls may choose to connect with the National Domestic Violence Hotline, and all calls remain anonymous and confidential.

"Market Update" continued on page 23. which allowed the site to retain its status as being grandfathered into newer zoning, which no longer allows for retail and food service. The store was subsequently closed until we received MDARD retail licensing (June 1) and were able to hire staff for full-time operation (late June).

In the coming quarters, board members and staff will pursue additional licensing for food processing and service, partner with local and tribal organizations and continue to build Minogin Market to its full potential. The board will review the sustainability of a year-round operation, which will likely be highly dependent on our ability to build food processing capacity. For now, the facility operates as a retail outlet and is open from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m., seven days a week. Fresh and smoked fish, maple products and produce are available for purchase along with consigned art and jewelry from LTBB Tribal Citizens.
